REVOCATION OF RESTRICTION

Only the person who imposed a restriction upon a dog may revoke that restriction. No fee is required for such revocation(s) The breeder should consider very carefully the circumstances of the restricted dog, concluding there is both the time and the financial ability to care properly for it, whether it be stud dog or brood bitch, and for any forthcoming litter.

It is important to understand that until the CKCSC has received and recorded the revocation of a breeding restriction, the dog or bitch may not be used for breeding. If a mating occurs prior to the recording date, any resulting litter will not be registered by the CKCSC and the owners of both the sire and dam of any resulting litter will be in violation of the CKCSC Code of Ethics.

Any or all of the restrictions imposed can be revoked at any time, but ONLY by the person(s) who originally imposed them. Any restriction from breeding must be revoked PRIOR to any breeding taking place. Revocation of any or all of the restrictions must be made on the Revocation of Restriction form. NO REVOCATION OF RESTRICTION WILL BE RETROACTIVE.

No restrictions shall be revoked, nor terms for revocation of a restriction be made, which will place any owner in violation of the Bylaws, Code of Ethics, or Policies of the CKCSC, USA, Inc.

The CKCSC Certified Pedigree will be endorsed with the Revocation(s) and the date such Revocation(s) is effective, and returned to the current owner.
